

PROPOSED SPECIAL PROBLEMS EXSC/HLTH/LSM/PHED 6910

Special Problems (1-3 credit hours) This course is designed to provide a graduate student with the opportunity to study in depth with a graduate faculty member or to participate in a field experience under professional supervision. Both experiences will culminate with a summary, presentation, publication, and/or poster submission at the departmental, university, state, regional, national, or international level, or comprehensive examination.

Justify your need for this course:

Clearly state your objective for this course:

Outline your procedures for pursuing the objectives:

Briefly, describe the final product you intend to submit:

List at least 4 dates to discuss:

- | | |
|----------------------------------|-------|
| 1. Orientations and Expectations | Date: |
| 2. Evaluation of Progress | Date: |
| 3. Project Submission | Date: |
| 4. Review | Date: |

Portfolios should be submitted with all assignments, grades, and final projects.

_____ Name of Student	_____ Student's M Number	_____ Student's Email Address
--------------------------	-----------------------------	----------------------------------

_____ Student's Signature	_____ Date
------------------------------	---------------

Course Prefix _____ # of Hours _____ Semester _____ CRN will be assigned _____

_____ Name of Instructor	_____ Instructor's Signature	_____ Date
-----------------------------	---------------------------------	---------------

Approved by: _____ HHP Graduate Program Director's Signature	_____ Date
---	---------------

Return completed form to HHP Graduate Program Office, MC 120, or e-mail to hpddept@mtsu.edu.